

STANDARD STATEMENT

The following software products are subject to Policy 186 ? Commonly Used Software Product Retirement Policy ^[1]:

- Adobe Acrobat?
- Microsoft Windows? Operating System
- Microsoft Office? Desktop Productivity Suite
- Microsoft Internet Explorer?
- Microsoft Windows? Server Operating System
- Microsoft SQL? Database Management System
- Microsoft SharePoint?
- Oracle Java SE?
- Oracle MySQL? Database Management System

This list is not inclusive of all software in use in state agencies. It contains software products are used across the majority of the state enterprise and by significant numbers of systems or users. The list does not contain software for which vendors do not publish a lifecycle. It also does not contain software that has not been identified as ?commonly used? at this time.

CONTACT INFORMATION

Contact OCIO Policy & Waiver Mailbox ^[2] for additional information or to request a waiver ^[3].

REVISION HISTORY

This is a new standard, there is no revision history.

SUNSET REVIEW DATE:

August 31, 2016

ADOPTION DATE:

August 25, 2015

APPROVING AUTHORITY

/s/ Michael Cockrill

State Chief Information Officer

Chair, Technology Services Board

Source URL: <https://ocio.wa.gov/policies/commonly-used-software-product-standard>

Links:

[1] <https://ocio.wa.gov/policies/commonly-used-software-product-retirement-policy>

[2]

<mailto:ocio.policy@ocio.wa.gov?subject=Standard%20186.10%3A%20%20Commonly%20Used%20Software%20P>

[3] <https://ocio.wa.gov/policies/policy-103-technology-policy-standards-waiver-request>

[4] https://ocio-website-files.s3-us-west-2.amazonaws.com/FY16_to_FY21_SW_Retirements_Excel.xlsx

[5] https://ocio-website-files.s3-us-west-2.amazonaws.com/FY16_to_FY021_SW_Retirements_Vlsio.pdf